ENYA HE

ENYA HE

Regional director, South Central region
Lloyd's America

Born and raised in China and educated both in China and the US, Enya He brings unique and versatile leadership to the insurance industry. As the South Central regional director for Lloyd's, she is responsible for market development activities in Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and Texas. She manages relationships with multiple stakeholders, including Lloyd's underwriters, Lloyd's brokers, US retail and wholesale brokers, independent insurance agents, and risk managers, as well as many trade associations.

Prior to joining Lloyd's, He was a tenured professor in insurance at the University of North Texas, where she passionately worked to ensure the successful post-graduation launch of hundreds of college students into the industry. Before moving to the US from China, He worked for Ping An Insurance Group, Tong Tai Insurance Brokerage and Swiss Life Group. She is an active director on the Insurance Industry Charitable Foundation Southeast/Texas division board and a member of the National Steering Committee for the Women's Insurance Networking Group.
